UW-Madison prohibits discrimination in employment and in all University programs and activities on a wide variety of bases, including prohibitions against sex discrimination and sexual harassment. These prohibitions are included in University policies and procedures, s.36.12, Wisconsin Statutes, Titles VI & VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended. Information and resources regarding Title IX are available at: http://www.oed.wisc.edu/title-ix.htm

Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance. Title IX requirements cover sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual misconduct and sexual violence. In accordance with these requirements, UW-Madison is responsible for taking immediate and effective steps to respond to sexual misconduct and violence. Sexual violence may include physical sexual acts performed against a person’s will or where a person is incapable of giving consent. A number of acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion.

University Health Services provides information and resources on Sexual Assault, Dating/Domestic Violence and Stalking at:

A pamphlet entitled, "Sexual Harassment: Defining and Addressing a Community Concern" is available in hard copy format from the Office for Equity and Diversity and the Office of the Provost and also electronically at:

Information for Faculty, Staff, and Teaching Assistants regarding Sexual Assault, Dating Violence and Stalking is available at:

Office of Equity and Diversity

The Office for Equity and Diversity (OED), within the Office of the Provost, Division of Diversity, Equity and Educational Achievement, promotes, integrates, and transfers equity and diversity principles to nurture human resources and advance the mission of the University. To attain these objectives we:

- Provide leadership and consultation to develop and implement equity and diversity strategies throughout the campus.
- Promote the use of standardized and proactive human resources processes.
- Nurture human resources through the effective use of continuous improvement principles.
- Establish collaborative partnerships with Schools/Colleges and Divisions.
- Coordinate and facilitate campus-wide learning communities and professional development presentations.
- Coordinate campus compliance with affirmative action and equal opportunity requirements, referred to as AA/EEO compliance.
